

Mawdesley continue to show strength at half way point

Mawdesley 1 continued to show strength at the half way point in the Southport & District Tennis League when they travelled away to Hillside 1 and secured a comfortable away win 13/3, with Kath Thow showing great resilience to gain maximum points for the team. Mawdesley 2 hosted Southbank 1, in a closely fought contest losing 10/6, although Chris Warburton put in a solid performance to gain 3 points for the team. Mawdesley 3 travelled away to Ormskirk 5 gaining a robust away win 13/3 with an excellent team performance all round. Mawdesley 4 gained a fantastic home win 12/4 over Ormskirk 6 with Jamie Richardson showing continued strength. Whilst Mawdesley 5 hosted a very tough Waterloo side, losing 13/3 despite a fantastic performance from junior player Mark Welch.
